

COVID - update

June, 2021.

What a year (or two) it has been!

At this moment the bulk of our worship remains virtual.

However we are looking to the future.

There will be opportunities over the summer to worship in person. Details are still being worked out.

Please stay tuned to this website and our Facebook page which are kept up to date with opportunities for in – person gathering